President's Message

The energy evident on June 2, 2015, during the first Board meeting of 2015-2016 was incredible. Your new Board met for the first time at Valerie Love's gracious home to kick off a terrific new year for The Society . This new year follows an "over the top" year of fundraising success and sisterhood during Lib Thompson's term as your President . Congratulations to Lib and YOU! We Rock!

To enhance leadership and voluntarism, I have chosen the theme for the year to be "Valuing Our Volunteers ... Our Heroines," specifically. You leaders of committees, those of you who raise your hands for shifts, offer to help, and say "YES!," You Rock! You are our heart, blood and soul.

As President-Elect I spoke to many of you over a 12-month period--and received your support to serve as officers, committee chairs, and committee members. That has been my greatest accomplishment, setting up the leadership that The Society will follow as a broad-based philanthropic organization for the next 12 months. I thank each and every one of you who said "YES"; you are my heroines and I owe you much. I can't wait to work with you and the general membership this year.

Looking forward, our Fall Meeting is already in detailed planning; and the new Photo-Directory is in active revision for its August printing . This summer I'll be meeting with committee chairs as we establish budgets for our committees, luncheons, and fundraisers.

Look for a SURVEY coming your way this summer with questions whose answers can help us stay relevant as an organization. They will quantify YOUR personal preferences, so that we can increase the number of volunteers at our fundraisers--so necessary because of their growing success in the community, as more and more folks attend our events.

The Elegant Elf Chairs and their steering committee will be working through the summer to stage the November 7th-8th event this fall. Tossed Out Treasures still needs

Closer to home, for 25 years, he has designed and donated the 14 -K gold President's Pin presented to each of our Sandy Springs Society presidents; he has attended every annual meeting; he designed (along with his son Eddie) the SS Turtle pin; and he was among the first in the community to purchase one of our beloved turtles.

On behalf of The Society, Gail Cohn presented the Spirit Award to Bob at our Spring General Meeting in May. Bob Knox is THE total package of steadfast commitments for multiple worthwhile endeavors!

And the BLUE RIBBON Award goes to...

Courtney Rose!

At the initial gathering of new members, Bonnie Laney challenged the ladies to begin making great strides and reaching new goals--both personally and for the Society. Taking the theme song "Today" to heart, the ladies certainly lived up to this challenge!

The cheerful willingness to carry out each task put before them is reflective of the spirit of this group of special women. Each used her gifts and talents and gave her best; they all deserve a Blue Ribbon in their area of expertise!

However, there is one sweet soul who immediately stepped forward to help lead in accomplishing our goals. She shines in her loving and giving attitude--even bringing in her generous husband who engineered and constructed the amazing luau setting for the fabulous TOT PREVIEW PARTY. Courtney Rose, we appreciate you!

Year 4 of Elegant Elf a HUGE Success!

As you have heard, The Elegant Elf had another banner year, thanks to the incredible leadership team assembled by our Immediate Past President Lib

Thompson. Chairs Brenda Letzler and Jan Stewart, along with Vendor Chair Melissa Patterson and the many members of the Elegant Elf Steering Committee headed by Barb Mutz and general EE Advisor Valerie Love, worked diligently for the preceding nine months to produce this outstanding community event-- with over 2500 shoppers, and grossing $119,542 and netting $85,008 in profits for The Society!

Approximately 3,756 hours of our Society member's time were involved in staging The Marketplace which was held again this year at Lake Forest Elementary School. According to national standards of $23.07 per hour, this represents an in kind value to the community of $86,650. Over 2500 shoppers enjoyed the unique and varied gifts, carefully selected for their quality and variety, displayed by over 70 vendors. Vendor fees, ticket sales and Polar Cafe raised just over $24,000. Other unallocated expenses included $2,322 for Pay Pal and Sales Taxes expenditures.

On Saturday morning, many little ones and their families enjoyed Breakfast with the Elves before going to The Marketplace. The Elegant Elf Evening Extravaganza was also a big success, raising almost $13,500. Society members, guests and sponsors enjoyed the sounds of the incredible Yuppie Scum band while bidding on wonderful items.

Much of the success of the 2014 Holiday Market is due to the outstanding effort on the part of the Fundraising Committee chaired by Clanci Jordan. It exceeded all expectations. Hats off to them for engaging our members and the community in supporting this community-wide event and raising approximately $49,720 in sponsorship dollars!

Plans are already underway to make the 2015 Holiday Market, co-chaired by Carol Luther, Pat Wigbles, Ann Nable, Barbara Olson and Vendor Chair, Melissa Patterson.will The event will be even bigger and more exciting than ever!

Place November 7 and 8th on your calendars now and plan to come be part of the fun. Many elves will be working together that weekend and we would love for you to be a VOLUN-DEAR!!

And... Keep your thinking cap on for interesting and unique auction items for the 5th birthday celebration Party "Evening with the Elves." The party is being co-chaired by Bonnie Laney and Jan Collins with the support of Sue Winner as Advisor. The Auction chairs haven't been finalized, so if you have an interest contact us. We are pleased to report Donna Glenn is on board as Auctioneer and Marsh Webb as Advisor for the Auction. A more casual event is planned for this year--but still elegant and exciting!

Kudos to Lib Thompson and the very merry band of Elegant Elf volunteers. It was a fabulous year! They did a great job of containing cost, generating sales and having FUN--the true "business model" for Society Success.

AND GOING FORWARD... A Note from the 2015 Chairs:

The Steering Committee has been busy at work to make this year's Elegant Elf Marketplace the most exciting ever!

In addition to the Marketplace itself, special events such as Evening with the Elves, Breakfast with the Elves, and Elegant Elf Restaurant Week will add to this year's excitement!

Please mark Friday night, November 6th for the "Evening with the Elves," promising to be a special birthday celebration commemorating our five-year anniversary. Thanks so much to Laura and Bert Jones for volunteering their amazing house for the event and silent auction!

Breakfast with The Elves will be a fun prelude on the morning of Saturday, the 7th, at Heritage Sandy Springs. Get your kids into the holiday spirit at this festive breakfast (with a possible surprise to be announced at a future date).

Thanks to Vendor Chair Melissa Patterson, we have an unprecedented number of vendor applications and acceptances- each offering unique and high quality items at the Elegant Elf Marketplace. If you know of a special vendor, please let us know (Carol Luther-- 678-612-6588). We are almost at capacity, already!

Of course, part of the reason our vendors love us is because of our fabulous hospitality, so please volunteer to bring food for the vendor hospitality committee. More information will be forthcoming regarding their needs.

And speaking of FOOD, The Polar Express Café is a vibrant, fun place to work with--and get to know--our 2015 new members. Again, please volunteer to prep and serve our tasty meal to hungry shoppers.

NOTE: Sign-Up Genius for slots and shifts for all aspects of EE will appear in the next issue of the SSS Newsletter. Thank you, Kim McAfee, for providing us all opportunities to sign up for myriad fun positions. Do plan to be a helpful elf!!

The demonstration and book signing committees are working hard to add some sparkle to the Marketplace by holding culinary/gardening/craft demonstrations, as well as book signings, mini-concerts, fashion experiences, flash dances, etc. If you have a connection with a person or group who would share some time with us , please let us know by contacting Teri Cloud (404-281-9295) for demonstrations, or Esther Levine (404-386-3456) for authors.

We are also expecting a wonderful raffle, and The Sandy Springs Society Booth will offer many unique and fun items to purchase. And once again, because all shoppers need sustenance, please plan to enjoy a leisurely lunch at the Polar Express Café!

The Elegant Elf Chairs - Barbara Olson, Pat Wigbels, Ann Nable and Carol Luther, and Vendor Chair Melissa Patterson--cannot express enough gratitude to everyone for all of their hard work. The Elegant Elf is a huge event to put together, but it is very special and contributes greatly to the Society's goal of improving the quality of life in Sandy Springs with the proceeds from these events. We hope to see you at these holiday events!

20th Year of Tossed Out Treasures is Over the "TOT" (Top) !

Thanks to a great location, a fabulous inventory of donated items and excellent public relations, Tossed Out Treasures 2015 exceeded all expectations by generating over $100,000 in gross revenues, netting the Society $73,767 for its philanthropic work.

TOT Co-chairs--Ann Nable, Elizabeth Kelly, Kathryn Loia and Barb Groves, supported by key advisor Joan Plunkett, worked with an outstanding committee of members who organized the various departments that make up the sale.

Many of the committee members have worked in the same TOT area for a number of years. While they may not have ever worked in the retail world, their dedication and creativity were awesome! The new member class produced a top-notch opening night party-- a luau complete with a tiki bar and delicious food.

Net proceeds from the preview party auction and ticket sales totaled $10,186, (included in the $73,767 net proceeds). This year's publicity was very effective thanks to outside consultant Lucy Crosswell, who generated coverage by a number of local newspapers, radio stations and LIVE television station 5, Atlanta's local Fox channel.

Many thanks also go to all of our volunteers who devoted approximately 3,771 hours. Many thanks also go to all of our volunteers who devoted approximately 3,771 hours to sorting merchandise and preparing it for display, valued at a substantial $86,997 of "Lady Power." Net sales on Friday and Saturday were $64,359; and $6,316 was raised in sponsorship dollars. Pay Pal fees and sales tax expenses totaled $7,094.

Way to go, ladies!

TOT is a highly anticipated community event and a key part of our community of Sandy Springs. Plan now to help with "sorting, stacking, staging and selling" in a casual and fun atmosphere next spring.....Set up: February 15-March 2; Sale: March 4 & 5.

WOW! Endowment!

Endowment Fund Continues to Grow

The Endowment Committee (Chair, Laura DeLong; Jeanette Berger; Catherine Ealick Anderson; Molly Graham; Carol Johns; Clanci Jordan; Karen Meinzen McEnerny; Beth Robertson; and Jean Ward) has reported that the Endowment Fund has grown from $146,247 to $157,107 during the SSS 2014-2015 fiscal year. Since the Endowment Committee was formed in 2012, the Endowment Fund has enjoyed a 10 1/2% growth!

The Committee appreciates and thanks all of the SSS members who have contributed to the Fund. A complete list of donors was available at the Spring Luncheon and will be printed in the 2015-2016 SSS Handbook. The Endowment Fund is set up for long-term growth in order to ensure that The SSS can provide support in perpetuity to non-profit groups in the community. Checks made payable to the SSS Endowment Fund, can be mailed to: SSS Endowment Fund, P.O. Box 720074, Atlanta, GA 30358 Donations may be made to honor or to memorialize an individual or group.

Laura DeLong presented a check for $5,188 to Cathy Galloway, Chair of the Philanthropy Committee at the Spring Luncheon. In the past three years the Endowment Fund has contributed $14,102 to the Philanthropic outreach of the SSS.

..AND Speaking of Philanthropy... This Note of Thanks, Just In:

Horizons Atlanta at Holy Innocents' Episcopal School is so grateful for the support of the Sandy Springs Society. Our six-week summer Global Academy started on June 3rd and ends on July 15th. The program serves economically disadvantaged Sandy Springs students in grades K-8, and offers a balance of literacy, math, music, art, and swimming.

Funds received from the Sandy Springs Society are being used to purchase supplies and provide transportation for the Global Academy.

Pictured here is a High Point kindergarten student posing with his peace symbol as his class discusses what peace means to each of them. Thank you for enabling the Horizons Atlanta to make an impact on our him and all of or precious students!

Finally... This is a note from your President who is inordinately proud of and admittedly biased about the hard fought effort to become a city in 2005 , thereby earning the right to be called "Sandy Springs." The US Postal Service recognizes zip codes 30327, 30328, 30339 , 30342 and 30350 as being all or a part within the City of Sandy Springs boundaries .

Unless you let Amy Sherwood know by June 30th that your personal preference is to keep your city as Atlanta, we will be changing the city referenced by the above zip codes in the directory to "Sandy Springs." We will honor your choice to keep "Atlanta" IF YOU LET AMY KNOW.
